Note on the Text

Cerdded was penned by Fay during ‘Landscape Language and the Sublime’, a recent symposium and gathering for Schumacher College at Dartington Hall, Devon, UK, 29-30th June 2016. Fay gave a presentation on her ongoing project ‘The Narrative of Trees’ and participated in an afternoon walking and writing event with Rhys Trimble in the grounds of the Dartington Estate. Cerdded is the corollary of Fay’s walk with Rhys.

FAY STEVENS is an archaeologist, writer, curator, artist and academic. Her work is a process of excavation; an unravelling of layers of time, memory and substance. It is a phenomenological enquiry and experience, concerned with trace, elements, the senses, inscription and corporeal interplay. <http://www.cargocollective.com/FayStevens>
