Selected Bibliography in Canadian Lutheran History<sup>1</sup>

Karen Kuhnert and Gordon A. Jensen

Entries for this bibliography were originally compiled by the Lutheran Council in Canada. Entries without asterisks were provided by members and staff of the Lutheran Council in Canada prior to 1982. Entries with asterisks were included by Norman J. Threinen in 1982. The list has been abbreviated and hyperlinks added by Karen Kuhnert. The content sourcing (e.g., “Available at the Laurier Library”) noted by Kuhnert was originally done to help researchers access material during the period of the COVID closures. These source materials were formative to presentations in the Webinar Series “For the Sake of the Gospel” by the Remembering Today for the Church of Tomorrow Project. Annotations to some of these works by Gordon Jensen and Karen Kuhnert can be found on <http://www.canadianlutheranhistory.ca>.

<sup>1</sup> As part of the Call for Papers for the Webinar series “For the Sake of the Gospel” by the Remembering Today for the Church of Tomorrow Project, the Project Coordinators are calling for an update to this bibliography. Proposed entries can be submitted to canadianlutheranhistory@gmail.com attention Karen Kuhnert and/or Gordon Jensen. Annotations are invited. It is ideal if Jensen and Kuhnert understand why a publication is considered valuable to the person recommending the work. The Consensus Journal editorial team is also interested in publishing Book Reviews of more recent works in Canadian Lutheran History. Inquiries can be sent to the same email address as above and will be forwarded.
