Cheetah in 60 Seconds

Lithe-legged and rudder-tailed, the chaser twists and lunges for a panicked springbok bolting over the bronzed veldt.

It rises to the blurred cross-beat of hooves and hide streaked over flanks sizzling like cymbals.

Jaws snap at the antelope's pallid throat and lock fast to the drumskin of gullet, stifling that swift hot pulse.

Timing the Cheetah

Ever a long shot, the speedster accelerates into the most remote rift of Africa, outcast from a ravaged range, revving into the worst scorched space, racing against a dire clock, hitting the Mach speed of mass extinction.
Pitiless that ticking face of the sun running down.
